Mission Statement of St. Dominic Church

As members of St Dominic Church, we are called through our baptism to give witness to the presence of the Holy Trinity by accepting the Gospel message of Jesus Christ as part of our daily lives. Our mission is to proclaim the Gospel; to teach and share our faith; and to show the love of God to all through our daily lives.

May 15, 2016 ~ Pentecost Sunday

THE FULLNESS OF THE HOLY SPIRIT

The church wakes up to an amazing message this morning. Look around and see who has been called. Listen to the voices of those who proclaim Jesus is Lord. You'll find no race of people left out; you'll find no language on earth unfit to proclaim the glory of God. We call Pentecost Sunday the "birthday of the church." In many ways, the church is still being born. Only when we all know the peace Jesus offered in today's Gospel will we really know the fullness of the Holy Spirit.

St. Paul assures us in today's second reading that "all of us have been given to drink of the one Spirit." When we look around us in the church we should see everyone. But we don't. Not yet. What is holding us back from fully embracing the one Body of Christ? When will we see our differences as manifestations of the same Holy Spirit?

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

“Order” and “presbyter” are not everyday words in our vocabulary, since we think of order as a quality of life rather than a collective noun, and “priest” usually does just fine in everyday conversation. Yet each word has deep roots in our tradition. At an ordination we select men for service to the community. Ordo is a Latin word drawn not from pagan religious life but from Imperial Rome. It meant a distinct body standing apart from the people, such as a body of people responsible for civil governance, senators for example. Think of the selectmen or board of governors in your civic home, and you will get the idea. The church borrowed the term to describe the place of certain people within the people of God, thus the “order of deacons,” “the order of presbyters,” and even “the order of virgins, catechumens, widows, neophytes, penitents,” and so on, as distinct groups within the church.

Just as ancient Rome had various uniforms for the ranks and stations in civil life, so too did certain garments give clues to membership in an “order” in the church. So, our tradition favors the idea of an ordination liturgy not as receiving something so much as being received. This is clearly expressed in the liturgy. The “kiss of peace” is given only by the ordaining bishop and priests to the newly “ordained,” not by the faithful, the deacons, or the concelebrating bishops who are present.

MENTIONS, MEETINGS, EVENTS & REMINDERS

Condolences in Christ to Scott, Karen & Monica Keene for the passing of Madeline. May you find peace in knowing that St. Dominic will continue to keep you and your family in our prayers at this most sorrowful time.

Special Thanks: The Family of Joe Cambron would like to thank everyone from St. Dominic Parish for all their prayers, cards, and visits during his stay at Springfield Nursing & Rehab. A special thanks to the Eucharistic Ministers who faithfully brought him communion every Sunday. Fr. Pepper, it meant so much to us that you were there praying with us at the end. Also, thank you to the choir, servers, and everyone who made the funeral mass a beautiful experience. Thank you to the Bereavement Committee for the wonderful meal after the funeral. ~You are appreciated, The Cambron Family

School News: There will be no bus transportation next week. Kindergarten graduation is at 6 PM on Monday. Graduation Day for our 8th graders is Tuesday. There will be a luncheon at 11:30, followed by the Graduation Mass at 7 PM and a Teen Night dance afterward until 10:30. Our closing day is Wednesday, May 18th. We will dismiss at 12:30 on Wednesday.

High School Seniors that are alumni/parishioners of St. Dominic School/Church: You and your parents are cordially invited to a mass and dinner being held in honor of your high school graduation on Saturday, June 4, 2016. Mass begins at 4:30 p.m., immediately followed by dinner in the school cafeteria. Invitations were sent out this week; please RSVP no later than June 1st so that we can plan accordingly. You may do this by calling the parish office, sending an email to: stodmdre@bellsouth.net or texting your name and number attending to: (859)481-2587.

Vacation Bible School will be held June 20-23 from 9:00 a.m.-12:00 p.m. each day. More details to follow soon!

Crusade for Children: Since 1955, the Archdiocese of Louisville has contributed more than $7 million dollars to the Crusade for Children. This community-wide effort exists to change the lives of children with special needs, and many families in the Archdiocese have benefited directly from the Crusade, as have our schools, which have received grants to assist students with diverse learning disabilities. The weekend of May 28/29, our parish will be collecting donations for the Crusade, and those who wish to donate may bring contributions to Mass or to the parish office. If giving by check, please make your check payable to the parish and put the word "Crusade" in the memo line. Thank you for your generosity.

American Red Cross Blood Drive: May 29th from 9 a.m.-1 p.m.-St. D Gym

Share Your View from the Pew: Do you have something to share about your experience as a Catholic? The "View from the Pew," which runs monthly in The Record, provides an opportunity for you to share your experience of being Catholic with good news stories, including service projects, great prayer or retreat experiences, and ideas and best practices for sharing your faith with others. Please email submissions for "View from the Pew" to Sal Della Bella, Director of Evangelization for the Archdiocese of Louisville, sdellabella@archlou.org, along with your name, parish, contact information, and an electronic photo. Articles should be between 500-600 words and will be edited for content, grammar, and journalistic standards.

House of Hope Baby Bottle Drive: You can truly make a difference by taking a baby bottle as you leave church. Fill it with change and bring it back on or before Father's Day. By doing this act of kindness you will be making a great impact in the lives of the women, children and families by giving them Hope & a future. May God bless you and you support of the House of Hope ministry and help improve the lives of the children here in our own back yard. Should you have any questions, or want to learn more about the House of Hope, call 336-0140 or Belle Sutton at 336-3172.

Adult Bible Study: Mondays @ 6:30 p.m. in the church basement, September-May. Please join in! Contact Colette Hill with any questions @ 859-481-4950.

USCMA Mission Appeal: On the weekend of May 21-22, Barbara Wheeler, a lay missionary representing the United States Catholic Mission Association (USCMA), will make an appeal at each parish Mass, asking for your prayerful and financial support in its mission work. As the national Catholic association of U.S. mission organizations, members of USCMA serve in missions around the world. Through animation, education, and networking opportunities, USCMA ministers to, supports, and provides a forum wherein the activities and efforts of US-based mission groups can collaborate together in bringing the Gospel of Jesus' saving love to people everywhere – internationally and domestically. Your prayers and generosity will help strengthen their apostolic zeal as the witness to Jesus in their own zip codes and to the ends of the earth. We thank you for your loving support.

Respect Life/ Elizabeth Ministry: Following the example of Mary & Elizabeth, this ministry creates welcome packs for parents of newly baptized babies within our parish. If you do any type of knitting, crocheting, sewing, etc. and would be willing to make and donate booties, blankets, and caps, we could use your talent! Or maybe you don't knit or sew, but would like to occasionally donate baby items such as wipes, lotion, shampoo or wash. Items can be dropped off at the Parish Office on any weekday from 8 a.m.-3:30 p.m. Want to learn more about this ministry? Maybe even possibly get involved in some way? Contact Rose Goodlett @ 336-9483.

The Heart of KY Red Cross Chapter is hosting a Welcome Orientation for adults interested in volunteering for the Red Cross. The orientation will provide information on what the Red Cross does, ways to volunteer and how to become a volunteer. Washington County is in need of volunteers and there is opportunity for either a little or a lot of volunteer time. This orientation will be held at the Washington County High School library on Tue., June 14, from 6:00 –7:30 pm. For additional information, please contact Lisa Haydon at 859-285-0099.

Year of Mercy (for May): As we celebrate this Year of Mercy and honor our Blessed Mother Mary this month, please keep in your prayers all mothers. In his just-released apostolic exhortation, The Joy of Love, Pope Francis states: “Mothers are the strongest antidote to the spread of self-centered individualism... It is they who testify to the beauty of life. Certainly, a society without mothers would be dehumanized, for mothers are always, even in the worst of times, witnesses to tenderness” (174).

IGA Receipts, BOXTOPS for Educations & Campbell's labels are all fundraisers for our school. We ask that you continually save them and drop them in the wooden boxes in the back of church.

~Stewardship Reflections~

“Lifting up his eyes to heaven, Jesus prayed saying: ‘Holy Father, I pray not only for them, but also for those who will believe in me through their word, so that they may all be one...’” John 17:20-21

It is through the stewardship of sharing our blessings with others, and caring for their needs, that we truly become one Body of Christ. Let us always pray to God our Father that we recognize these opportunities as they arise.

Catholic Women's Conference:

Interested in being involved in the Catholic Women's Conference on November 5, 2016? We are looking for women in every parish to help spread the word about this amazing event. You may contact Angie Kamer-Lay at draklay@icloud.com or (502)303-8121 if you want to participate. We need YOU!
