Our church always prays for and cares for our sick sisters and brothers at home, in hospitals, and in nursing homes. You are always in our hearts, minds and prayers as we celebrate the Eucharist at St. Dominic. If any who are sick want to ask in faith for the church's prayers, please do not hesitate to contact our parish office at 336-3569.

Our Annual Fall Social is rapidly approaching and we are busy making plans to bring back the in-person social, drive-thru also available. We look forward to an evening of good food, fellowship, and fun. This year's meal will consist of grilled pork tenderloin, a bun, baked potato, green beans, dessert, and a drink for $10. An alternative hamburger or hotdog meal with chips, dessert and a drink will be available for $5. The Grand Prize Drawing (1st-$5000, 2nd-$3000, 3rd-$2000) will be held at 7:00 PM. Chances will be $5 each, just like last year. New this year will be a live-auction of desserts/cakes, all the while offering some fun activities for the children. However, we need your help! Do you make a specialty dessert or cake that your friends and family love? If so, would you consider making this special sweet treat for the auction? In the back of church, you will find a sign-up sheet for the specialty dessert/cake auction, please sign up if you are willing to make & donate an item. This year's chairpersons are: Lisa Taylor (Gaming) 859-481-5304, Cassie Michalski (Kitchen) 859-481-3517. Details of this year's social can be found in the packets that went out in the mail to all registered parish members on 8/9, if you did not receive a packet, please contact the parish office at 859-336-3569. We ask that all raffle money & tickets be turned into the parish office (in person or through the Sunday collection) on or before Friday., Sept. 3. Thank you ALL for your continued support!!

DECISIONS: There is an axiom that states, “Not to decide is to decide.” This saying was popular in the turbulent times of the Vietnam War. It urged us not to allow others to answer the moral questions raised by our nation’s involvement in that terrible conflict, but to decide for ourselves. Making such choices is never easy. Avoiding them is common. Jesus, for his part, was not only a gallant risk-taker, but a clear decision-maker. As he pursued the mission to which the Father called him, he continually decided for us and for the Father. He worked hard to lay out a scenario that would enable others to make similar choices. Never did he make decisions for others or force others into decisions, even decisions that had eternal ramifications. Jesus is inviting us to make such decisions today. We won’t be absolutely sure. What is sure, however, is the command that issues from God’s word: Take the risk. Decide! Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

FEAST OF FAITH - Come, Spirit! The presider at the Eucharist can choose from among a number of different Eucharistic Prayers, all of which follow a similar pattern. Almost always, they begin with an epiclesis, a Greek word that means “invocation upon” or “calling over here.” At this moment in the prayer, the priest calls down the Holy Spirit upon the gifts of bread and wine that we have brought to the altar: “Father, we bring you these gifts. We ask you to make them holy by the power of your Spirit, that they may become the body and blood of your Son” (Eucharistic Prayer III). The words of the prayer are accompanied by the ritual gesture of the laying on of hands, the ancient sign of the gift of the Spirit, which is also used in most sacramental celebrations, from the rite of confirmation to the ordination of deacons, priests, and bishops. Liturgists sometimes call this first epiclesis the epiclesis of consecration. Later in the Eucharistic Prayer, there will be another epiclesis, the epiclesis of communion, as the priest asks that the Holy Spirit be sent upon us to transform us. “Grant that we, who are nourished by his body and blood, may be filled with his Holy Spirit, and become one body, one spirit in Christ” (Eucharistic Prayer III). —Corinna Laughlin, Copyright © J. Information packets have been mailed to all families who have children that were enrolled in last year’s program. If you are a new family interested in enrolling your child/children, please pick up an information packet from the table in the breezeway of the church, or stop by the parish office. Packets can also be downloaded and printed from the church website, stdomparish.org then look under the documents tab.
