“BUT WHO DO YOU SAY THAT I AM?”
 Peter said to him in reply,
“YOU ARE THE CHRIST.”

Our church always prays for and cares for our sick sisters and brothers at home, in hospitals, and in nursing homes. You are always in our hearts, minds and prayers as we celebrate the Eucharist at St. Dominic. If any who are sick want to ask in faith for the church’s prayers, please do not hesitate to contact our parish office at 336-3569.

Arch. Joseph E. Kurtz has restored the obligation to attend Mass on Sundays and Holy Days of Obligation. Those parishioners who are ill, immunocompromised, or have severe fears or anxiety as well as those who care for those who are ill are exempt from this obligation. (See Catechism of the Catholic Church #2181). Parishioners also may exercise prudent caution about Mass attendance for those who cannot be vaccinated. For more details visit <https://www.archlou.org>, click on “Taste and See the Goodness of the Lord” for a series on returning to in-person worship.

Our condolences in Christ to Cathie Velotta at the passing of her brother, Kenny Velotta, and to the family of Christy Caldwell. May the Good Lord bless you all and give you inner peace during this time of loss.

Giving Back to God

IT'S ALL ABOUT CONTROL: From toddlerhood to old age, we grow in mastery of our own lives, our bodies, and our destiny. This mastery is hard won, and we don't let go of autonomy easily. Much of this self-mastery involves the avoidance of pain or discomfort, so when we hear things like "take up your cross" and "lose your life," we tend to resist the message. James says that faith without works is dead. Ouch! That is really a direct message! One way to look at this, as well as the part about losing our life to find it, is that faith is a process of more and more openness to God's direction of our lives. It is very hard for us to give up control, but perhaps what we are being asked to do is not to become passive and babyish, but to allow God to direct where our self-mastery will lead and what it will accomplish. We are asked to relinquish the need to control the results of our efforts; to risk, as Jesus did, the loss of everything we are working to achieve. We are asked to let God take the lead and to control the results, even though we may never see those results. Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

FEAST OF FAITH - Offering and Intercessions: In this holy moment—with the consecrated bread and wine, the Body and Blood of Christ, upon the altar—we pray for a share in the fruits of Christ's sacrifice. We offer to God what God has given to us, and we intercede for the Church and the world. We pray for the pope and for all the bishops, and we mention the bishop of our local church by name. We pray for the clergy and for all the people of God. We pray in a special way for those who have died. And we pray for ourselves, that one day, with Mary and all the saints, we may come to that place where Jesus already reigns. These prayers of intercession, like the General Intercessions earlier in the Mass, broaden our focus and remind us that the Eucharist is offered not just for those gathered, but for the salvation of the entire world. The Eucharistic Prayer leads us from an intense focus on Christ, present in the consecrated host in the hands of the priest, to a loving sweep of prayer that embraces the world. —Corinna Laughlin, Copyright © J.
