Giving Back to God

RECOGNIZING JESUS: The star of today's Gospel is a panhandler. Bartimaeus is blind, yes, but he is probably also homeless and filthy, a real nuisance to respectable citizens. Even so, it is Bartimaeus who recognizes Jesus as the Messiah, places all his faith in him, throws aside everything he has (his cloak), begs him for mercy, receives new vision, and follows Jesus on the way to suffering and death in Jerusalem. How desperate will we have to get before we can do the same?

FEAST OF FAITH-The Sound of Communion: The priest receives Holy Communion, and then there is movement, a bustle of activity, as we prepare to join the Communion procession. This holy meal does not happen in silence! Instead, we sing together even as we rise and move forward in procession to the altar. We must change and move to receive the Eucharist, and fittingly so, since the Eucharist is transformative—it demands action of us, internal as well as external. We do not receive the sacrament in silence, but with a dialogue that is also a profession of faith: “The Body of Christ.” “Amen.” “The Blood of Christ.” “Amen.” We acknowledge the real presence of Christ in the Eucharist with our “Amen” of faith, but more, our “Amen” is also a prayer that we may become what we receive, the Body of Christ, living and active in the world. We receive him not that he may become a part of us, but that we may become a part of him—part, too, of all the others who receive him, the whole communion of believers. —Corinna Laughlin, Copyright © J. 2021 Catholic Campaign for Human Development Collection, November 20/21: Our parish will take up a collection for the Catholic Campaign for Human Development. More than thirty-eight million people in the United States live in poverty. This collection supports programs that empower people to identify and address the obstacles they face as they work to bring positive and permanent change to their communities, and 25% of the funds collected will remain in the Archdiocese of Louisville to fund local antipoverty projects. For more information about the Catholic Campaign for Human Development, visit www.usccb.org/cchd. An envelope for this collection can be found in parishioners tithing packets.

World Mission Sunday (10/24): In 1926 Pope Pius XI instituted Mission Sunday for the whole Church with the first worldwide Mission Sunday collection taking place in October 1927. The Mission Sunday collection (envelopes found in the pews.) is always taken up on the next to the last Sunday in October. This day is celebrated throughout the Universal Church as the feast of catholicity and universal solidarity so Christians all over the world over will recognize their responsibility in regard to evangelization of the Good News of God's Love.
