LOVE GOD: As we near the end of the liturgical year we listen to Gospel readings from the final stage of Jesus' ministry—his teaching in Jerusalem. This Sunday Jesus is in conversation with one of the scribes of the temple. In a rare occurrence Jesus and the scribe agree on the two greatest commandments—to love God with all your being and to love your neighbor as yourself. In today's selection from Deuteronomy Moses gives this teaching to the Israelites as the core of their life of faith and prayer, and Psalm 18 echoes this prayer with the words, "I love you, O LORD, my strength" (Psalm 18:2). Jews and Christians agree that our greatest responsibility is to love the one and only God, and that we cannot claim to love God without loving our neighbor as ourselves. Copyright © J. S. FEAST OF FAITH - Prayer after Communion: The rites following the reception of Communion are very short. It is as if the Church is saying to us that the only way to respond to this great gift is to go forth and live it! But there are some significant rites yet before we are sent forth from the Mass. After Communion, we pray together in silence or sing a hymn; both are ways to thank God for the gift of the Son. Then the priest prays another collect, the Prayer after Communion. This prayer, usually very short, gathers our prayers into one. It reminds us of what we have already experienced: in receiving the Eucharist, we have received a foretaste of the heavenly banquet; we have eaten the bread of angels. This reality, this knowledge, should transform us, so that we may journey through this life with our hearts set on eternal life, and find in the Eucharist—which is food from heaven and daily bread—the strength and hope we need to work toward God's kingdom of justice here and now. —Corinna Laughlin, Copyright © J. Trick-or-Treat: Youth Group members will be "Trick-or-Treating" for canned goods and other nonperishable food items on Sunday, October 31st. Beginning at 5:00 p.m., students will be out in costume collecting food, which will be donated to our Food Bank, that will help feed the hungry in our community. Any household that would like to participate by handing out food to the trick-or-treaters, please call the parish office (336-3569), Angela Young (481-2587) or Rachel Fenwick (481-4943) so that your name and address can be added to the trick-or-treat route. You can also email Angela at dre@stdomparish.org. You do not have to live in the city limits in order to participate. Keep in mind that students will only visit homes that have signed up in advance. This is such an awesome opportunity for our high school youth to give back to the community!

Youth Group will meet on Tuesday, November 9th from 6:00 p.m. - 7:30 p.m. in the church basement. In addition to our November lesson, we will also plan December's Christmas party. We had 26 members and four guests present for the October meeting, we would love to see even more in November!

Catholic Campaign for Human Development Collection, November 20/21:

Our parish will take up a collection for the Catholic Campaign for Human Development. More than thirty-eight million people in the United States live in poverty. This collection supports programs that empower people to identify and address the obstacles they face as they work to bring positive and permanent change to their communities, and 25% of the funds collected will remain in the Archdiocese of Louisville to fund local antipoverty projects. For more information about the Catholic Campaign for Human Development, visit www.usccb.org/cchd. An envelope for this collection can be found in the church pews.
