

Go, sell what you have, and give to the poor and you will have treasure in heaven;

then come,
follow me.

October is Respect Life Month

Each October the Church in the United States celebrates Respect Life Month. As Catholics, we are called to cherish, defend, and protect those who are most vulnerable, from the beginning of life to its end, and at every point in between. During the month of October, the Church asks us to reflect more deeply on the dignity of every human life.

Did you know? Sixty percent of Kentuckians living in long-term care facilities have no outside visitors. None. You can change that. Become a volunteer friendly visitor with the Long-Term Care Ombudsman program (through Catholic Charities) in 15 counties. Email Moira at mbrennan@archlou.org to get involved and change a life.

If you are not able to join the Long-Term Care Ombudsman program, consider visiting someone locally who is in a long-term care facility or visit someone who lives alone. Bring a smile to a lonely heart with something as simple as a visit.

Tithing Contributions for this past weekend (also includes tithing contributions during the week &/or ACH contributions, etc.): $28,295.30

Giving Back to God

GIFTS: In today's readings, we discover that material wealth alone does not keep us from discipleship. We will see that there are other gifts more important than material wealth, but even so, it is how we use our gifts that matters most. Today's scriptures point to the value of the gifts of wisdom, trusting in God, and letting our actions reflect the love of God from within. It is not gold that causes us to fall, but rather the desire for gold above all other things. From the readings in Wisdom and Hebrews, we find the source of God's gifts in our lives. Wisdom is more valuable than worldly possessions. In Hebrews, we are challenged to look at our own values and admit honestly what controls our lives. Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

FEAST OF FAITH - Agnus Dei: After the sign of peace, the priest breaks the host into pieces, and prepares the patens or plates of hosts for the assembly. In the early church, "the breaking of the bread" was the name given to the entire Eucharistic liturgy, so central was this action to the meaning of the Christian life. For just as the one bread is broken and given to many people, the many are made one in receiving it. During this ritual action, we sing an ancient litany, calling on Jesus as the "Lamb of God"—the words used by John the Baptist when he pointed to Jesus walking beside the Jordan River (John 1:29, 36). In calling Jesus "the Lamb of God," John was already pointing to the death that Jesus would die: in giving his life, Jesus would become the Paschal Lamb of the new covenant. During the Mass, when we call on the Lamb of God, we call to mind his self-sacrificing love, his blood poured out for us, and we ask this compassionate Lord for mercy and peace.
