

Heaven and earth
will pass away,
but my words
will not pass away.

Pope Francis' Prayer Request for NOVEMBER: People Who Suffer From Depression - We pray that people who suffer from depression or burn-out will find support and a light that opens them up to life.

A Steward's Way: The life of a Christian steward models the life of Jesus. It is challenging and even difficult, in many respects, yet intense joy comes to those who take the risk to live as Christian stewards. Women and men who seek to live as stewards learn that "all things work for good for those who love God" (Rom 8:28).

Operation Christmas Child Shoeboxes are due by Sunday afternoon, November 14. Filled boxes should be placed in the confessional. Contact Lori Tucker at 859-805-0121 with any questions.

GOD'S REIGN: By pointing to the end times, today's readings speak to the coming reign of God, when God will make all things new. In Christ, this time has already begun. We, by our energized watchfulness, can further God's reign. We can heal broken hearts, free captives, spread the Good News. Even so, the reign of God will not be complete without the second coming of Christ. Our weekly eucharistic gathering is a sign of the fullness of the end times. At Mass we join as an assembly to recall and to claim the story of Jesus as our own. Together we give thanks to God for the many gifts bestowed upon us. We receive nourishment in the simple but profound meal. And our weak and weary selves are invigorated and transformed by the power of Christ, so that we ourselves might become effective signs of God's reign present and to come. Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

FEAST OF FAITH - Blessing and Dismissal: At the beginning of Mass, the priest made the sign of the cross with us. At the conclusion of Mass, he makes the sign of the cross over us, a sign of blessing. We are then dismissed—not just let out, but sent forth with a mission “to love and serve the Lord.” Just as Jesus blessed his disciples as he ascended to heaven, so this leave-taking is joined to a blessing, a prayer for God's continuing protection. As we leave the church, we bear the invisible sign of the Master whom we follow. In the words of an ancient letter to Diognetus, “Christians are indistinguishable from other [people] either by nationality, language, or customs. They do not inhabit separate cities of their own, or speak a strange dialect, or follow an outlandish way of life. . . . And yet, there is something extraordinary about their lives” (Liturgy of the Hours, Vol. II, p. 840). We are ordinary people sent forth to live extraordinary lives, lives like Christ's own life—pouring ourselves out for others in prayer, service, and love. —Corinna Laughlin, Copyright © J. S. Catholic Campaign for Human Development, November 20/21: More than thirty-eight million people in the United States live in poverty. This collection supports programs that empower people to identify and address the obstacles they face as they work to bring positive and permanent change to their communities, and 25% of the funds collected will remain in the Archdiocese of Louisville to fund local antipoverty projects. For more information about the CCHD, visit www.usccb.org/cchd. An envelope for this collection can be found in the church pews.

Advent Bible Study using the book The Infancy Narratives of Jesus, which explores the stories of the conception and birth of Jesus in the gospels of Matthew and Luke. This is a three-lesson Bible study that includes study and reflection questions, prayers, and access to online lectures. Books have been ordered and should be in very soon. Groups that have met in the past, or those interested in starting a new group or joining an existing group, contact Angela at the parish office (336-3569) to reserve books. Advent begins on November 28th.
