TO BE A PROPHET: Today's readings show us what it is like to be a prophet. As Jeremiah recounts his call, God warns him that he will need strength and perseverance to withstand the hostility he will face from "Judah's kings and princes" and "its priests and people" (Jeremiah 1:18b). God also assures him that they "will not prevail over you, for I am with you" (1:19). The psalm reflects both of these struggles as well as deliverance from them ("salvation"). This is exactly what Jesus experiences in today's Gospel. After he claims that his own mission is the same as what Isaiah proclaimed, at first the people marvel at his "gracious words" (Luke 4:22). Soon, however, they become suspicious, skeptical, and hostile, even threatening to kill him. But just as God promised to deliver Jeremiah, so Jesus "passed through the midst of them and went away" (4:30). Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

~ Stewardship Reflection ~

"Before I formed you in the womb I knew you, before you were born I dedicated you, a prophet to the nations I appointed you." Jeremiah 1:5

We are all called to make a difference in the world. Our vocations are uniquely ours based on the gifts that God has given us. St. Augustine said, "God loves each of us as if there were only one of us."

Rite of Christian Initiation (RCIA) in the Catholic Church is a process of initiation into the Catholic Community of Faith for persons who are experiencing a conversion in their lives and seeking either Christian baptism in the Catholic Church or full Communion with the Catholic tradition of Eucharist and Confirmation. If you are possibly interested in joining the Catholic Church, please contact Fr. David or the parish office at 859-336-3569.

Safe Environment Training: St. Joe in Bardstown is hosting SET on Monday, February 7th at 6:30 p.m. for anyone that has never attended. For those that have already attended SET in the past but need the refresher training, which is now required if it has been five years or more since you have attended SET, you can attend an in-person training if you choose instead of completing the online refresher training at <https://louisville.cmgconnect.org/>. Please keep in mind that the online training is ONLY for those who have attended an in-person training in the past. Anyone that is seeking training for the first time, MUST attend in person. If you have any questions, please contact Angela Young at the parish office, 336-3569, or by email at dre@stdomparish.org.

Youth Group will meet on Tuesday, February 8th from 6:00 p.m. - 7:30 p.m. in the church basement.
