Our condolences in Christ to Barbara Pettus & Family at the passing of her mother, Audrey Edelen. Our deepest sympathy is with you in your time of grief. We pray you'll sense God's presence and find peace in Him.

GIVE THANKS TO THE LORD FOR HE IS GOOD, HIS LOVE IS EVERLASTING.

Second Sunday of Easter: In Jesus' first appearance to his disciples, as described in today's Gospel, Jesus sends the disciples, and all who follow him: "As the Father has sent me, so I send you." Jesus speaks to us here: we the Church are a "sent people," sent to participate in God's mission, that is, God's purposes and activity for all of humanity. Like Jesus was sent to Israel, we are sent to witness to our world of the boundless love of God, and to offer an alternative way of living based on that love. The wounds that Jesus displayed to his disciples remind us that this new way of life often involves both dying to the familiar and comfortable, and rising to the new and unknown. When we join in efforts to challenge injustice, heal broken relationships, or care for those on the margins of society, we share in the death and resurrection of Jesus.

THE WEEK BETWEEN: In today's Gospel, we notice there was a week between Jesus' first appearance (without Thomas), and the following appearance (with Thomas). During this week, Thomas chose to stay with the community. But why? Perhaps he trusted his friends in some way. Perhaps he reflected on their life with Jesus and on the possibility their account was true. In the week between, Thomas stayed and lived with the questions, and with his doubts. Importantly, the disciples did not cast him out as an unbeliever. It seems they accepted and loved him, just as he was. Perhaps many of us live in this "week between." We have questions and doubts. We can choose to leave or to stay. We can either engage or ignore our deepest questions. If we embrace our questions with courage, we can live into them. Perhaps we will encounter, through God's initiative, and with the help of our companions in faith, some of the answers—and new questions along the way.

PRIMARY DIMENSIONS: We are currently in Year C of the three-year Lectionary cycle. For the Second Sunday of Easter, in all three years, the first reading is from the Acts of the Apostles. Year A (from Acts 2) tells of the new Christian community's dedication to prayer. Year B (from Acts 4) tells of their sharing of goods and deep bonds of trust in each other. Today we hear in Acts 5 of the early Church's ministry of healing to the community, performed by Peter and the apostles. These represent three of the primary dimensions of those first Christian communities: prayer in relationship to God; sharing in relationship to each other; and service in relationship to the world around them. We are reminded that all three are fundamental to our identity as Church. We fail to live fully as Church when we neglect any of these relationships. We are called to encourage their full flowering in our own parish's life.

Today's Readings: Acts 5:12-16; Ps 118:2-4, 13-15, 22-24; Rev 1:9-11a, 12-13, 17-19; Jn 20:19-31 Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co., Inc.

I would like to thank everyone for the love, concern, many nice cards, and most importantly all the prayers during my recent surgery. It is so nice to be a part of such a caring church family. Love, Katelyn Noel

Regional Divine Mercy Celebration: Fr. Hardesty and St. Catherine Catholic Church (174. N. Main St., New Haven, KY 40051) invite you to a Regional Divine Mercy Celebration on Sunday, April 24, 2022 from 2:00-4:00 PM. Eucharistic Adoration and Confession will be held from 2:00-3:00 PM. At 3:00 PM we will have a Divine Mercy ceremony with readings, a homily, and devotions, Benediction at 4:00 PM, followed by Confession.

Parish Stewardship Renewal Process: Stewardship renewal forms were mailed out at the end of March. To date, 75 packets have been returned. Thank you! It is our prayer that all parish households answer the call to discipleship by prayerfully considering what is offered through our parish's stewardship renewal process. To help us plan accordingly for the life of our parish in the upcoming fiscal year, we ask that packets be turned in by Thursday, April 28th. Thank you for all the ways you make a difference in the life of our church community.
