THE HOLY TRINITY

Father

ONE GOD
and Father of all,
who is over all
and through all
and in all.
Ephesians 4:6

Son

THE WORD
became flesh and made his dwelling
among us, and we saw
his glory, the glory as of the Father's only Son, full of grace
and truth.
John 1:14

Holy Spirit

THE ADVOCATE,
the holy Spirit that
the Father will send
in my name ~ he will teach you everything
and remind you of all that I told you.
John 14:26

Archdiocesan Corpus Christi Procession: This summer marks the beginning of the Eucharistic Revival, a 3-year process initiated by the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops to renew our devotion to and belief in the Real Presence of Jesus in the Eucharist. The inaugural event of the Eucharistic Revival will be a public procession with the Blessed Sacrament on the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ, on June 19, 2022. We invite all Catholics in the Archdiocese of Louisville to join us at the Cathedral of the Assumption for this procession immediately following the Sunday noon Mass. The procession will proceed through several blocks of downtown Louisville. This will be followed by a time of adoration and prayer in the Cathedral and will conclude with Benediction at 3:00 p.m., followed by an ice cream reception. Consider carrying a banner representing your parish, school, or Catholic organization.

HOLY TRINITY

The Father • The Son • The Holy Ghost

Getting to Know the Trinity:

As difficult as it is to understand the Holy Trinity, I am amazed that Jesus even bothered to tell us about the Father, the Spirit, and himself. As if his own life, his teachings about God's love, his miracles, his death and resurrection were not enough, he told us something about God that we never would have imagined: There are three Persons in one God. It is also something we cannot completely comprehend. So instead of trying to explain it, let's look at what it means for us believers.

One thing it shows is that God wants to be known by us. Since theologians and spiritual writers have been helping us do that for almost two thousand years, it may not seem like a big deal. But in ancient times, people expected their gods to be mysterious and hidden. Many cultures thought that you could control a spirit or god if you knew its name. So knowing anything about the inner life of a god would be huge. But our God is the only God, whom no one can control. God sees us not as a threat but as beloved children. Just as a couple falling in love wants to know everything about each other, so God wants to be known by those whom God loves. That leads to my second point.

The Trinity also shows us that "God is love" (1 John 4:16) because the three Persons are united in one God. The Persons of the Trinity already love each other perfectly, so God shares that love with us. God calls us to be united in love with God and with each other. Remember that God knows us perfectly and still loves us. How many of us would want another person to know everything about us? Yet knowing our weaknesses and our sins does not hurt God's love for us. On the contrary, our weaknesses allow God to help us by answering our prayers or inspiring someone to come to our assistance. God permits us to sin, knowing that we can experience divine love in forgiveness. We may not be able to grasp the full meaning of the Holy Trinity, but knowing that God shares this with faithful people helps us to love God even more.

Len and I would like to thank all of our parish family for the love expressed these last several months. All the cards, food, visits, prayers, more cards and many expressions of caring were much appreciated. It was through these many acts of love that we feel truly blessed and with those prayers, my prognosis is looking much better. May God return to you all, these blessings many fold. -Susan Spalding

Our condolences in Christ to Inez (Jerry) Grider at the passing of her father, Robert Leo "Sport" Hamilton, and to Joyce Reddick at the passing of her brother, Crittenden "Critt" Rawlings. We are praying that the light of God's face shines on you in the darkness of your grief.

VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL will be held June 20–23 from 9:00 a.m. to 12:00 p.m. each day. All children ages 4-12 are invited to attend. Registration forms for participants and volunteers are available in the back of church, at the parish office and on the church website <https://stddomparish.org/home/documents/>. Completed forms can be dropped off/mailed to the parish office or placed in the collection basket. You can also email completed forms to dre@stddomparish.org. Please take the time to preregister as this saves so much time on the first day, and it also gives us an idea of class sizes. There is no cost, we just ask that each family bring a package of cookies and a box of Capri Sun or Kool Aid pouch drinks the first day.

Our Elizabeth Ministry group will meet on Monday, June 13th at 10:30 a.m. in the parish office conference room. We would love to welcome new members to this wonderful ministry, so please join us on the 13th if you can. The Elizabeth Ministry works to welcome the newly baptized of our parish.

An invitation from St. Margaret Mary Church: All are welcome! We hope your family will join us for a Special Disciples of Jesus Mass. We invite all Special Needs family and friends to St. Margaret Mary (7813 Shelbyville Rd, Louisville, KY), on Sunday, June 26 at 3:00 PM. We know Mass can be a struggle for many families, so we hope to have a beautiful and unique celebration together where all feel welcome. Just come as you are! Your family will be welcomed with open arms and will hopefully meet other families in similar situations. The Mass will be shorter and geared toward our children. Our hope is to foster a Catholic community with fellowship during and after Mass, so stick around to meet other families and kids. Immediately following Mass attendees are invited to a cookout sponsored by the Knights of Columbus. The Knights will be grilling hamburgers and hotdogs, potato salad, baked beans, chips and drinks will also be served. You are invited to bring your favorite dish or dessert to share. Should you have any questions, concerns, or suggestions, please feel free to contact Tara Mattingly at 502-690-2851 or tmattingly@stmm.org. To help with the planning and ordering of supplies for the cookout, please RSVP to the phone number or email address above with the # of Adults & # of children eating. Thank you!
