Tithing Contributions for this past weekend (also includes tithing contributions during the week &/or ACH, etc.): $7,777.26

Regional Welcoming Masses for Archbishop Shelton J. Fabre: Archbishop Shelton J. Fabre is presiding at regional welcoming Masses throughout the Archdiocese during May and June. The closest three locations for our area are: *Thursday, June 23, Basilica of St. Joseph Proto-Cathedral (310 West Stephen Foster Avenue, Bardstown) at 7:00 p.m. & *Thursday, June 30, St. Augustine Parish (225 South Spalding Avenue, Lebanon) at 6:00 p.m. All are welcome to attend!

Vacation Bible School will be held June 20–23 from 9:00 a.m.–12:00 p.m. each day.

All children ages 4-12 are invited to attend. Registration forms for participants and volunteers are available in the back of church, at the parish office and on the church website <https://stdomparish.org/home/documents/>. Completed forms can be dropped off/mailed to the parish office or placed in the collection basket. You can also email completed forms to dre@stdomparish.org. Please take the time to preregister as this saves so much time on the first day, and it also gives us an idea of class sizes. There is no cost, we just ask that each family bring a package of cookies and a box of Capri Sun or Kool Aid pouch drinks the first day.

Pentecost Sunday - Teach and Remind: I'm not very good at telling jokes. I like them, but after I hear one and laugh at it, I let it go and forget it. I suspect this doesn't just apply to jokes. The Gospel today hints that the disciples may have had the same weakness when Jesus says the Spirit will "teach you everything and remind you of all that I told you" (John 14:26). Jesus spent three years teaching his disciples about the kingdom of God. While he may have condensed his message to "Love God . . . and love your neighbor as yourself" (Mark 12:30-31), he spent most of his time showing them how much God loves them and how to love their neighbor. He used parables as examples and miracles as signs of the Father's love. He answered their questions and explained things privately. Knowing that this would still not be enough, he promised to send the Spirit after he had risen. He seems to have known that sometimes you just can't learn by listening. You have to experience some things to understand them. Sometimes you have to explain something to someone else before you understand it yourself. And that is what the disciples would do. When they received the Spirit after Jesus' resurrection, they began to talk about Jesus to anyone who would listen. They also began to do the things Jesus talked about. They fed the poor and healed the sick. Thus they began to experience Jesus in those around them. They would remember what Jesus had taught them and apply it in their lives. They even accepted suffering for their faith. We too can receive that promise from Jesus to have the Spirit teach and remind us. As we share our faith with others, we begin to experience Jesus in them. Just talking about our faith helps it to grow. As we listen to the Lord in prayer, we are reminded of passages in the Bible that we have read or heard from the altar on Sunday. We begin to understand how they apply in our lives. We may remember things that seemed to be very bad but turned out to be God's plan--maybe losing a job, only to find a better one; or moving away from friends, only to make new friends later. May the Holy Spirit teach and remind us of the signs of God's love. Tom Schmidt, Copyright (c) J. S. Paluch Co.

Our Elizabeth Ministry group will meet on Monday, June 13th at 10:30 a.m. in the parish office conference room. We would love to welcome new members to this wonderful ministry, so please join us on the 13th if you can. The Elizabeth Ministry works to welcome the newly baptized of our parish.

Christ has no body now on earth but yours, no hands but yours, no feet but yours; yours are the eyes through which Christ's compassion looks out on the world, yours are the feet with which He is to go about doing good and yours are the hands with which He is to bless us now.

~St. Terese of Avila
